Printed in U.S.A.

Last year Parliament offered an American Heritage Dictionary to the public at a very good value. The public loved it and Parliament sales continued to grow.

So – what's the good word this year – besides those in the dictionaries?

The good word is that we're repeating the promotion. You just don't walk away from a winner like this one.

The timing – just before the "Back To School" rush, when dictionaries are most popular.

Talk to your Parliament representative. Be sure you have a good supply of cigarettes on hand.

A word to the wise? Stock Parliament, Box, King Size and 100's!

It works like a cigarette holder works.
